Making the Most of AFE's Free #FlowerMarketingMonday Videos

The new #FlowerMarketingMonday video series encourages ALL members of the floral industry to use the short flower-promoting videos as personalized marketing materials to promote their businesses. A new video is shared on our social media pages each Monday that can be used to promote your business!

To ensure that everyone uses the videos to their fullest potential, we created a new guide: "How to Make the Most of #FlowerMarketingMonday." We developed it to show you step-by-step how to access, download, personalize and use each and every video in the series.

Thirteen videos have already been released to date, so get them and promote Flower Power!

Legacy Planning: Charitable Gifts as Part of Your Estate Plan

We have all heard the famous idiom that following death, "you can't take it with you". While the saying is true, one does have it within their power to leave a lasting legacy behind for the betterment of others, aside from what one leaves behind for their family. Planned gifts directed to AFE have a big and lasting impact on the future of floriculture.

UF/IFAS CALS Student Named a Top National Horticulture Industry Professional

This article was written by Dana Edwards and was originally published in UF/IFAS Blog.

GAINESVILLE, Fla. – A native of Rajapur, Nepal, Krishna Bhattarai came to the University of Florida for graduate school to continue his education in improving disease-resistant crops. Though Bhattarai has been in the United States for less than a decade, his research on the Gerbera daisy and strong presence in local and academic communities has been noticed by his peers.
