

Floriculture Funding & Opportunities

The American Floral Endowment (AFE) provides a wide range of free resources for students considering a career in floriculture or horticulture. From scholarships and internships, to professional development opportunities, let us help you kickstart your future in floral!

LEARN MORE!

For more information, visit endowment.org/students

STAY IN-THE-KNOW WITH AFE ON SOCIAL MEDIA!

-  American_Floral_Endowment
-  AmericanFloralEndowment
-  FloralEndowment
-  AmericanFloralEndowment
-  American-Floral-Endowment
-  EndowmentOrg

American
Floral
Endowment

Research
Internships
Scholarships
Education

Funding the Future of Floriculture

YOUNG PROFESSIONALS COUNCIL (YPC) . . . . .

- For any young professional aged 18–35 in horticulture/floriculture
- Offers professional development, networking, and volunteer opportunities through online and in-person events & webinars
- Free to join!

SCHOLARSHIPS . . . . .

- $60,000+ Awarded annually to students
- 30+ Scholarship opportunities for undergraduate and graduate students
- Applications due May 1st of each year

INTERNSHIPS . . . . .

- Vic & Margaret Ball Program places interns in top production greenhouses for 3, 4, or 6-month periods
- Mosmiller Program places interns at leading retail, wholesale or allied businesses for 10–16 weeks
- Upon successful completion of their internship, students receive an additional scholarship
- Applications due March 1st & October 1st of each year

THE AFE CAREER CENTER . . . . .

- Industry-wide employment platform that connects floral businesses with job seekers
- Opportunities range from internships to leadership positions
- Access job alerts, resume management, search features, and career resources

For more information, visit endowment.org/students

